

Video Series

- Explores how the dispossession of land from Indigenous Peoples took place throughout what is now called Canada.
- Provides several perspectives through the personal narratives of Oneida and Anishinaabe recognized Knowledge Holders.

- Critically explores legislation such as the Royal Proclamation & the Indian Act.
- Focuses on several Treaties in Southern Ontario:
 - * Dish With One Spoon
 - * Robinson Huron Treaty
 - * Williams Treaty
 - * Two Row

VIDEO 7: Williams Treaty (3:23)

Learning Goal - Canada has had, and continues to have, numerous policies for the assimilation of Indigenous Peoples into colonial culture.

Main Ideas Presented:

- Northern expansion despite no prior informed consent from Indigenous civilizations
- Indian Title shifting definitions

“As Indigenous Peoples, our ways of knowing are strongly connected to our history, land, animals and the sky.

It is through our history that we will be guided into the future.

Our words and our land are the truth.”

VIDEO 8: The Future (10:58)

Learning Goal - Traditional Knowledge Holders see numerous ways forward and offer some suggestions for further education concerning Truth and Reconciliation.

Main Ideas Presented:

- Need for renewed respectful agreement
- Call for further education
- Build real relationships for all

To access this resource:

<http://fnmieao.com/resources/in-our-words>